LABORS BATTLE FRONT STAYS UNCHANGED

Only One Plant in Operation in Cleveland District—Steam Engineers Leave Work Under Orders at Gary

(By Associated Press.)

Interest in the great struggle in the steel industry shifted today to Washington where the labor committee of the senate opened an investigation with the avowed intention of discovering "if the situation in any way can be relieved by federal action."

Meanwhile no radical change was reported in the actual strike centers. It was labor's day in court, for the first witness called was John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national steel workers' committee. The employers' turn will come next Wednesday when Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, presents the case for capital.

FARRELL, Pa., Sept. 25.—Luke Grogan, a Serbian, was shot and killed by a state trooper here shortly after 11 o'clock when the police searched a house under suspicion of being a sniping post from which shots have been fired at a steel plant.

FARRELL, Pa., Sept. 25.—The boroughs of Farrell and Sharon remained quiet today. A full company of 54 state police continued to patrol the principal streets of Farrell.

The local authorities last night said they had heard reports that bands of men from across the Ohio state line nearby would come into the Farrell and Sharon area to join the Pennsylvania strikers. State and local authorities have taken precautions against any invasion.

Mass meetings having been forbidden by proclamation here and Sharon. The local secretary of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers is said to have announced that a meeting would be held across the Ohio line today. The South Carnegie plant was in operation today. Officials said more men are returning every day.

Bar Mill Closes

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25.—The bar mill of the Empire Rolling Mill Company, an independent plant closed down this morning, owing to a shortage of labor, according to company officials. Leaving the sheet mill department of this company, employing 300 men, the only steel plant left in operation in Cleveland on the fourth day of the nation-wide strike.

The company has a special agreement with the steel workers but the bar mill was shut down because of a shortage of laborers.

To guard against repetition of yesterday's disorders in which seven men were injured, special details of police this morning were sent to the vicinity of all mills affected.

The number of men idle today, according to union officials, is more than 25,000, but company officials claim that not more than 19,000 are idle.

Engineers Strike at Chicago
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—An official announcement that steel and rail mills of the United States Steel corporation plant at Gary, Ind., would be in partial operation today, which would be the most extensive resumption of work in Chicago district since the strike of steel workers was called Monday, was counterbalanced by the 195 steam engineers at Illinois Steel Company at Gary being ordered out on sympathetic strike by their local union. Union leaders asserted that action would close the Illinois Steel Mills.

Claims of the industrial and labor leaders still were at variance. Five

ITALIANS MOVE INTO JUGO-SLAV COAST REGIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
PARIS, Sept. 25.—Apparently in emulation of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio, whose dramatic seizure of Piave centered the attention of the world on the eastern littoral of the Adriatic, other Italian leaders are reported to be advancing on Spalato, Sebenico and Trau, important towns along the coast which have been under the control of Jugo-Slav forces. Peace conference circles are plainly concerned over the situation which seems to have become quite grave.

Belgrade advices declare Italian soldiers have overpowered a small Jugo-Slav force at Tuguire and have entered the town. It is probable that the place mentioned is Trogir, the Croatian section of the city of Trau.

Further south there appear also to be disorders, reports from Rome indicating there is a virtual reign of terror at Ragusa, a Dalmatian town close to the frontier of Montenegro.

In addition, there are rumors the Italians plan to restore King Nicholas to the Montenegrin throne, from which he was ousted by action of the national assembly last April. This section of the national assembly has never been recognized by the royal Montenegrin government which has maintained its headquarters near Paris for several months. King Nicholas is the father of Queen Helena of Italy.

ROME, Sept. 25.—Cabinet ministers do not conceal the enormous gravity of the situation and the serious difficulty, not to say the impossibility, of finding a satisfactory solution to the Piave problem. They do not want to use force against D'Annunzio, wishing to avoid fratricidal conflict, and it is said that this hesitation may be partly due to the fact that troops ordered against the poet's forces might refuse to obey orders.

Persuasion, it is said here is useless without agreeing to Captain D'Annunzio's conditions—the annexation of the port of Piave and the hinterland to Italy proper. It is asserted that if the Italian government should accept such conditions she would have against her not only her allies but her erstwhile enemies, headed by Jugo-Slavia.

The advisability of the cabinet resigning has been examined but the idea has been abandoned since a ministerial crisis would not help to solve the problem, nor is there a man available with greater authority of energy than Premier Nitti.

FOREST FIRES RAGING NEAR LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 25.—Two disastrous fires in the Los Angeles National Forest were spreading today, according to officials of the forest service here.

Jumping a hastily constructed fire break, a fire in the region of Thousand Pines, 20 miles northeast of San Bernardino, Calif., was sweeping toward Pine Crest and Squirrel Inn, two large resorts in the San Bernardino mountains.

One hundred men fighting fires in the Big Tejon Canyon, about 10 miles north of Pasadena were forced to flee for their lives when the fire, accelerated by a wind destroyed their camp.

While it has been impossible to estimate accurately the total area burned over by the fires, it was known to be considerably in excess of 100,000 acres, forestry officials said. The principal damage has been to watersheds, forming the source of water supply for a number of southern California communities.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BIG TIMES CAMPAIGN CREATING COMMENT

Widespread Interest in Who the Contestants Will Be—Numerous Entries Will Be Made Daily—Several Nominations Already Made.

Look For the List of Prizes on Another Page—Read the Impartial Conditions Governing the Campaign Then Send in Your Name at Once.

(By ARNOLD H. PRINE)

Yesterday the big surprise of the season was handed the people of Lima and Northwestern Ohio, and it was read with more than ordinary interest. Much favorable comment was heard, and many are the inquiries regarding the many different phases of the big Times subscription campaign, heard on every hand. Who are to be the contestants is the big question right now, but that many live and energetic men and women will enroll in the big fight is assured. We are not going to make any announcement of the contestants until the latter part of next week. All must start on an even keel, and after all the districts have been heard from, then a complete list of those entered will be published.

Biggest Thing in Years

When it is considered that $5,000 in valuable prizes will be given away absolutely free to the ambitious citizens of this section of the country, it will be quickly seen that this is indeed the long looked for

of a lifetime. Just stop and realize for a moment, that an $1,895 Willys-Knight automobile, of the latest 1920 design, the car that will turn the automobile world upside down, is to be given as first prize. Then the well known sturdy Chevrolet is second, and two pianos, two talking machines, furniture etc., is to be given then and only then, will it be seen that the largest subscription campaign ever attempted by a newspaper in a city the size of Lima, is now launched.

The price of the Times has been reduced to $3.00 by a carrier and $2.00 by mail per year, and this should all tend to make the gathering of subscriptions much easier for those who will participate as contestants. Most papers when they plan to give away several thousand dollars in prizes, either raise the price of the paper, or have some strings attached whereby the actual cost of the venture is taken care of, however, the Times has done the unexpected; offered $5,000 in prizes and at the same time reduced the price of the publication.

The publisher of the Lima Times, has every confidence in the people of Northwestern Ohio, and believes that the present campaign will strike a popular chord in the hearts and minds of the citizenry, and will result in adding several thousand new subscribers to the already large list of readers.

Now is the Time to Get Started

Nominations will be received every day. Don't wait for someone else to send in your nomination, come to the office right away and have the proposition explained to you in detail. There are no limitations placed on the entry of contestants, but there are vast advantages to be gained by getting your name in the first published list and thereby letting your friends know early that you have decided to make the race. Don't make the mistake of turning in your name at the eleventh hour, but send in your nomination at once, while the field is fresh, and while you have the chance of securing several subscriptions before the territory has been gone over. The value of the first prize is large enough to cause the most backward person in the world to jump in and make the hardest kind of a campaign.

Consider that by a little effort on your part in seeing your friends and using some of your spare time—it is possible for you to win a prize so valuable in so short a space of time, that the mind can hardly grasp the magnitude of the opportunity offered. Don't hesitate because you think it will take too much of your time. All over this state, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania, the Manager has seen prizes carried off by people who held regular positions. They just started without loss of time and made a clean get-away with the prizes by strong, early systematic work. Their friends were quick to get behind them and were eager to subscribe for the paper in order to help them win the much coveted prize.

Business Proposition

When considering this big campaign, keep in mind one thing. This is not a "charity proposition" but it is a strictly business proposition, and one that every keen business man in the country will realize and heartily endorse. A $1,895 Willys-Knight Touring Car, to be given away in eight weeks, that means $236.87 per week for the full time of the campaign, not a half-bad business proposition for the cleverest business man in Northwestern Ohio.

Please note that it costs no one anything to vote, but that no one will be allowed to solicit subscriptions except for the prizes named in these columns by the contest manager.

Any one taking the paper when the contest began yesterday will be considered an old subscriber. All others are counted as new and their subscriptions will carry the larger number of votes. Subscriptions will not be considered new if they are simply transferred from one member of the family to another. Neither will any employee of the Times nor any member of his or her family be permitted to try for the prizes. Votes once cast for one candidate cannot be transferred to another. In short the contest is run on terms absolutely fair and impartial to all.

R. R. Shopmen Meet at Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—A convention of federated railway shopmen called by the Chicago district council of the federated railroad shopcrafts opened today for the announced purpose of devising means for obtaining an increase in wages.

J. D. Saunders, secretary of the council said the delegates would discuss the inability of their grand lodge officials to obtain more than four cents an hour increase granted railway shopmen last month by President Wilson and also declared a movement would be started to recall the grand lodge officers

LOOT SAMPLE SHOP AFTER CUTTING A HOLE THRU CEILING

Large Quantity of Valuable Furs and Clothing Carried Away in Most Mysterious Way

Thieves last night entered the Sample Shop, at 220 North Main street, and stole furs and other valuable wearing apparel to the estimated amount of between $7,000 and $10,000. The robbery was well planned and timed.

Yesterday afternoon a man wearing a dark suit and derby hat applied to Mrs. Alice A. Anderson, who conducts a rooming house over the store. He stated he only wanted the room for a few hours rest, and was placed in a front room directly over the store. At the time the man rented the room there was some conversation between him and Mrs. Anderson relative to change.

Finally the man stated he would obtain the change when he went for his sample case. That was the last Mrs. Anderson saw of him, she stated this morning. She, however, declared that about 8 o'clock last night she heard two voices in the room.

Discovered in Morning

This morning when Joseph Besser, a clerk in the store was preparing for the day's sales, he discovered two crepe waistcoats lying on the floor. Upon further investigation it was discovered two that numerous dresses and coats had been thrown to the bottom of various show cases.

Besser started a thorough investigation, and finally noticed that directly about the front show window a hole had been cut through the ceiling. Further investigation revealed the fact that the thief had taken a small stool to the top of the show window to better enable him to climb back when his work downstairs was completed.

The manager of the store was notified, and he immediately appeared on the scene. In the meanwhile clerks of the various departments had arrived, and then efforts were made to secure some estimate of the loss.

Partial Loss List

As far as can be ascertained the most valuable assortment stolen was 15 coats, the cheapest of which was priced at $189. There was a large quantity of fur pieces stolen, but no estimate of the number could be made. Twenty-five tricot dresses which were priced at $50 were taken. Two plush coats valued at $192, and 150 silk waists the prices of which will range from $3 to $10 were also taken.

Besides the enumerated list there were several hundred dollars worth of other articles taken which have not been checked up yet, according to a statement of Mr. Swartz.

That the thief was an experienced hand at the handling of clothes there is no doubt as the cream of the stock was picked, while the cheaper goods were thrown aside. Every case in the establishment was ransacked, and nothing of any value was overlooked.

Getaway Mystery

Police are now trying to arrive at some conclusion as to how the thieves got the stolen goods away. It is impossible, attaches of the store declare, to have packed the amount of goods stolen into less than eight suitcases, and so far as can be ascertained there was no automobile driven to the door of the rooming house either last night or early this morning.

Evidence shows that the thief left the establishment in the same manner in which he entered, as all the rear doors and windows are intact. The front door could not be opened from the inside except with a key. There are footprints on the top of the show window, and indications are that the robber made several trips from the floor to the top of the window from whence he handed the goods through the hole to a confederate in the room above.

TRIBUTE PAID TO "MAN AMONG MEN" BY RETAILERS

Merchants Tender Verbal Tributes to N. L. Michael at Banquet

J. N. GREEN, SPEAKER

When Retail Merchants Discuss Business Conditions in Lima

One hundred and fifty Lima retail merchants and their guests Wednesday evening went on the theory that it is a whole lot nicer to strew verbal flowers before the living, who are able to hear and appreciate, than to wait until the dead can not smell the flowers.

Following this plan they paid a highly nice tribute to Nathan L. Michael, one of the leading merchants of this city, and a man of whom it may truly be said his is a "man among men."

The banquet commemorated the third anniversary of the organization of the Lima Retail Merchants Association, of which Mr. Michael was one of the organizers and of which he was president until he declined a re-nomination.

Tells His Story. A high compliment was paid to Mr. Michael by W. H. Clarke, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, acting as spokesman for the association. Mr. Michael's well known public spiritness was dwelt upon even more than his success as a business man.

Mr. Michael, in responding, spoke from the subject, "Lima's Progress." Few merchants of Lima can review the happenings of as long a business career in the same city as Mr. Michael, and his reminiscences of "how they used to do it," were entertaining and instructive as well.

especially to the younger merchants.

41 Year Career.

Mr. Michael has been a merchant in Lima for 41 years and has always been a consistent and liberal advertiser. In fact he credits advertising, and his minute attention to the details of his "copy," with playing a large part in the success he has scored. In coming to Lima from La Porte, Indiana, he entered the Wise clothing store and one of the first things he undertook was the preparation of good copy to supplant the standing ad the store then carried in the three Lima weekly papers.

Main Street Then. In 1880 the population was 5,000 and Main street was a procession of cobble stones, putting the present street, about which we complain, to shame.

The greatest element that entered into the success of the "House of Michael," as the founder proudly calls it, is the fact that he early established the rule of "one price to all," and refused to change this policy in all the years. "I wouldn't throw in even a pair of suspenders in any purchase, because I believe absolutely that every article of merchandise should be priced and sold for that fixed price," concluded the speaker.

Big Sales Plans.

The special committee having in charge the preparation of plans for two big fall sales events in Lima, reported and the plans submitted were adopted. A Fall Harvest Sale will be held on October 8, 9, 10 and 11, and this campaign will be under the general direction of Chairman Federian, of the Boston store.

Suburban Day.

Chairman Kettler, of the Suburban Day publicity committee made a report of the work of his committee, and called upon Mr. Blum, of the Leiser store, who was assigned a large portion of the work. Mr. Blum reported extensive plans for the furtherance of Suburban Day.

R. B. Dunn, president of the association, announced that a feature of this event, will be a farm products exhibit, with suitable prizes for the best exhibits.

Armistice Event.

Lima will also celebrate Armistice week, that of November 11th, with a big celebration having the backing of the merchants.

President Dunn announced as one of the features a prize essay contest, open to both city and suburban residents.

Green Speaks.

John N. Green, former national president of the Retail Grocers Association, was the last speaker of the evening, making a technical address, going into details regarding the profit retailers can command and showing the small margin on which they deal. He emphasized the wrong impression, the public generally has about the profit that retailers command.

the way the tin cutting is pushed back it would seem as though he was very small. First, Anderson gave his height as about five inches and weight as about 135 pounds.

The robber had used a brace and bit in cutting the hole. Whether or not he had a keyhole saw in his possession is not known, but if he did it was never used. The job of cutting through the ceiling necessitated quite a long while as there were two partitions to cut through and the fact that he used only the brace and bit would demonstrate this.

Mr. Swartz, this morning stated, it was after 11 o'clock when he left the store last night, and up to that time there were no peculiar sounds in the room above. He also stated today is a Hobrow holiday, and it was at his intention to come to the store, and for this reason he left to change in the case of a war. This was also taken.

According to the manager of the store, there is no indication on the goods stolen.

SENATORS WILL VISIT ALL STEEL CENTERS; MAKING A STRIKE PROBE QUEST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The senate committee on education and labor, charged with the investigation of the steel strike, will sit in Pittsburgh and examine witnesses from various parts of the Pittsburgh industrial district.

If time permits and circumstances warrant, it may sit in Cleveland and other industrial centers.

While the committee has formulated no program, Senator Kenyon of Iowa, chairman, stated it was safe to assume hearings would be held in Pittsburgh. He thought witnesses could be brought there from Youngstown, Sharon, New Castle, Johnstown and other places within a 100-mile radius. If the committee decides not to go to Cleveland, witnesses will be called from there.

This constitutes a modification of the original intention of Senator Kenyon, who said in the senate debate the committee would confine its sittings to Washington. This was because of unwillingness of senators to leave the capital when votes on the peace treaty amendments may be taken at any time.

But Senator Kenyon said it is possible enough committee members may be induced to go to Pittsburgh for a hearing on a Sunday and thus obviate the possibility of being absent from a roll call.

It is expected the investigation will take about two weeks. Every effort will be made to close it up within that time, but the chief consideration will be to get at the facts so that congress and the public may form an accurate opinion of the issues involved.

"We propose to summon union men and non-union men as well as employers of union shops and non-union shops," said Senator Kenyon. "There is to be no prejudice or favoritism in the investigation."

The inquiry will open today with John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the steel strike committee, as the witness. Judge Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation talked with Chairman Kenyon over the telephone and arranged to appear before the committee next Wednesday.

time and a half for overtime, double time for Sundays and holidays and nine hours pay for eight hours work. This was declared to be a "model" agreement. The same form of agreement will be submitted to other fabricating companies in the Youngstown district.

Almost $1,000,000 was paid in wages to 11,000 employees of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company. Not a single incident of disturbances accompanied the gathering of so many men at the company's gates. Rumors last night that strike-breakers were being brought into Youngstown caused heavy pickets at the railroad junctions by the strikers and brought out a number of them in the vicinity of some of the plants. The rumor proved unfounded.

GARBAGE CASE DROPPED

Owing to a technical error in the ordinance relative to the collection of garbage in the city, the cases against Ike Wade and George Johns have been dropped. Both men were to have been presented in police court upon charges preferred by the Sanitary Garbage Company to whom the city recently let the contract for collection of garbage.

The garbage company contends that the other men had no right to collect garbage.

FAIL TO STEAL AUTO

Thieves last night broke into the garage of E. N. Pierce, 333 North McDowell street, and attempted to steal an automobile. They, however, gave up the attempt when they found they were unable to start the machine owing to its being locked.

WANTS REMOVAL OF DEATH TRAPS FROM THIS CITY

Frank Burkhardt, Mayoralty Candidate, Would Eliminate Private Railroads

WANTS SAFETY FIRST

Railroads Would Bear Brunt of Cost and Citizens Would Benefit

Frank Burkhardt, Democratic candidate for mayor of Lima at the fall election, Thursday came out squarely for the elevation of railroad tracks through the city and the removal, thereby of several death traps that have been a hindrance to the safety of the people and the transportation facilities of the city, notably the east Market street crossing.

Mr. Burkhardt's long experience in the railroad business fits him particularly to know the needs of the traveling public and to solve transportation problems.

100,000 Population. "Lima is destined to become one of the largest cities of the state and we should consider future transportation problems, as well as the safety of our people," Mr. Burkhardt said to a Times reporter today.

"I am in favor of measures that will bring about the separation of the railroad crossing grades by elevation or viaduct as the case may demand," he continued.

Growth Now Retarded.

"East Lima, North Lima and extreme South Lima are cut away and retarded by the present grade crossings as by a wall. Ft. Wayne, Columbus, Dayton and other cities are working this out and it must come to Lima, whose goal of 100,000 population now is in sight. The great burden of cost, of course, would be assumed by the railroads but they, in turn, would be benefitted incalculably by exemption from accidents and the safety and facility in traffic movements. It is the only ultimate solution of the free movement of traffic either by pedestrian, vehicle or street car," Burkhardt concluded.

DEMOCRATS IN SESSION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 25.—The democratic national committee opened an executive conference here today at which preliminary details for the democratic campaign will be discussed. The sessions will be presided over by Homer S. Cummings, chairman, and probably will continue until Saturday.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 25.—The typical "boarding house missis" of East Youngstown is up against it. Her roomers were used to occupy the same beds in turn as the working shifts changed in the mills. The problem was solved by arranging turns in sleeping on the floor in front of the beds.

School Board to Take Care of Unfortunates—Tuition Increased

Only routine school business occupied the members of the board of education at their regular meeting held in the office of Superintendent Collins last night. All members, with the exception of J. I. Motter, were present. The matter of providing shoes for school children whose parents were unable to buy them was brought before the board, and Superintendent Collins reported that every child has been given shoes who brings a written note from their teacher, stating that they are deserving.

No child has been turned down who has asked for shoes either last year or this year, but where requests are made, the teacher must make an investigation to determine whether the parents are financially unable to purchase shoes.

Owing to the increase in teachers' salaries and school operation it was found necessary to make a nominal increase of about $1 per month on non-resident students. Fred Wallace and M. P. Heltzer have been engaged as new teachers. Mr. Wallace having charge of the manual training and Mr. Heltzer the science classes at South High school.

Talking

IT IS NOW SEVEN weeks since President Wilson recommended that the house be designed to cut the high cost of living. The house has made some progress toward legislation. The senate has spent practically all its time talking about the president. The profiteers ought to appreciate this co-operation from the upper branch of the national legislature.

The Farmer is Out of Debt

IN TALKING ABOUT THE high cost of living, remember that the farmer is out of debt. You may not see in this statement anything worth considering, but there is. With the farmer out of debt he can not be pressed to increase production save through the high price of farm produce—and there's the danger.

When the farmer was in debt, he had to produce all he possibly could, regardless of the prices he received. He couldn't stop; he couldn't curtail production, he had to go ahead and cultivate all the land he could. But it is different now; he owes nothing, and has considerable ahead, as a rule. So he isn't driven as he once was. He can "take it easy," if you please. If prices do not suit him, he can refuse to plant and if he refuses to plant—well, there will be that much less foodstuff and every shortage of a bushel at this time is important.

We must get at the bottom of profiteering. We must prosecute those who violate the laws. We must demand only a fair profit from every one handling necessities of life. But we must not go so far in our campaign for lower prices as to discourage this man out in the country who is out of debt. We should realize that reasonably high prices for farm produce is not at the bottom of our woes, but that it is a splendid thing to have prices high enough to encourage the farmer to increase production, even when he doesn't have to cultivate the land to pay the interest on a mortgage.

A Canadian View

WE IN THIS good land of ours are not the only people who are talking about the high cost of living and the profiteers. They are having similar things to worry them in other countries. Here is a clipping from a Canadian newspaper of recent date, which shows that the Canadian view is about the same as the American view.

"More work and more production, less extravagance and less luxury—more simple wholesome living and less ostentatious display—these are as necessary today as the very necessary attacks upon profiteering and without a check on the mad orgy of speculation and spending, we cannot hope to reduce the cost of living or put an end to the unrest and potential trouble it involves."

More work and more production. That is the keynote of the whole thing. It is the only thing that is going to save the day. We are in sympathy with the man who has to work long hours for a living. It would be delightful to be able to produce enough in a few moments. But the truth is, there is a lot of work to be done in the world if everybody is supplied, and it requires considerable time to do it. We can not supply ourselves with the necessities of life by working a few hours a day, however desirable such a condition would be. More work and more production—that is the thing.

We Eat More When Prosperous

IN DISCUSSING THE high cost of living and the attempts being made to reduce prices, the Chicago Journal says that "our country as a whole is prosperous and being prosperous, eats a great deal of meat." And in that one sentence the paper comes very nearly ending all argument in regard to the supply and demand.

People are going to consume a great deal more of everything when they are prosperous than when they are not, of course. We talk about the necessities of life, when the truth is we are much more concerned with luxuries and comforts than with necessities. Very little is necessary to sustain life—a loaf of bread or a few potatoes or a handful of rice will do so. The problem is not to get the bare necessities, but to get enough to make us comfortable and contented—and there is a big difference between the two. A bath tub isn't necessary, one could live without bathing. But who wants to do so, who wants to get along without a bath tub? The same thing is true of a thousand and one other things which come under the head of "necessaries" but which in the final analysis are not necessary to sustain life.

We can get along with very little meat if we have to. But when people are employed at good wages they are going to consume a great deal of meat—in this country especially. Even at present prices for flesh foods, more of it is being consumed than ever before because people have the price to pay for it. There will be a demand for everything in the way of food and clothing so long as people have the price to pay, and all the arguing in the world will not stop them from buying. Hence it follows that the more meat the country the greater the amount of food that will be produced to supply the demand—and no matter how great the supply produced, it is not likely to exceed the demand so long as people have the means of obtaining it.

It is not upon the order when it is hard

Baptist minister about striking for higher wages, according to a report in the Chicago Journal. He tells the rest of the preachers that if his people strike for higher wages, he will give them a donation of whatsoever they need for a year and possibly a donation of employment for 12 years. What next?

We hear some talk about the League of Nations. We wouldn't be surprised if we saw a young man in the League of Nations.

Some people's idea of the League of Nations is that it is the people's good, is to wait the League of Nations, regardless of the fact that we might run out of gas five miles from the garage.

The best place we know for finding out the plan of railroad operation would be down in Mexico, where all the railroads and trains are shot to pieces—most every day.

GOOD EVENING—"The main trouble with the girls now is that when they think they aren't dressed fit to be seen, is when they are feeling comfortable."

The Times' Family Doctor

"JOINT ACHES"—SIMPLE WAYS YOU MAY FIND REAL RELIEF

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (John Hopkins University)

Pains in the knee joints that cause fleshy or elderly women so much trouble sometimes yield to local applications. There are supports of various kinds which sometimes do good. For example, an old-fashioned "knee cap" knitted from soft, fine wood is flexible and shaped to the knee. Though entirely soft, it acts as a slight brace or support and may greatly alleviate pain that is often severe. Such caps are to be found in some shops and various women's exchanges take orders for them.

If you are a woman who suffers much in this way, hot water employed regularly between retiring and getting up gives relief. For this water remedy a seat is arranged near the hot water faucet in the bathroom and after you sit down you put your feet in a small tub. Then a pitcher sufficiently small for you to hold with ease is filled with hot water. From this you pour a small stream directly upon your knees and let the water flow off into the tub. This stream is kept running unintermittently except when the tub must be refilled for 15 or more minutes. You will find this treatment most beneficial.

Aches and twinges are warned out of the joints and you can go to bed and sleep quietly. There will, however, be no benefit from such a remedy unless the water is as hot as can be endured. With the repetition the knees become accustomed to a high temperature, so a degree of heat that would scald the face can be endured.

Painting the joint nightly with colorless iodine is sometimes advised for rheumatism and the application has the merit of being easily applied and perfectly clean. The liquid is put on with a camel's hair brush. After a time the surface peels, but it causes no pain.

Heated turpentine is beneficial when placed upon the joints. This, at as other inflammable combustible explosive must not be heated by direct contact with fire or on top of a stove. It should be poured into a china cup and set into a deep vessel of boiling water. Only four or five minutes will elapse before the fumes should be sufficiently hot to apply.

There is a chloroform liniment which, if rubbed in thoroughly once a day or night is helpful. It quiets the pain or scalds. From the pain away, if you have the time or facilities. A hot iron over a flannel bandage and "scalds" and other "burns."

This should be done when the patient is ready to go to bed. To accomplish the rubbing process a thick piece of flannel stretched smoothly over the spot affected and then a flatiron, as hot as can be borne without burning, is passed over the painful spot. This sends heat directly into the region affected and sometimes will make the pain disappear. To rub the spots with warm alcohol before bedtime is excellent for serious pains. After such treatment the patient must go to bed at once or there will be danger of contracting a cold.

CANDIDATES WITHDRAW

HAMILTON, Sept. 25.—David W. Heiser, republican candidate for mayor, today announced his withdrawal from the race, due, he says to ill-health. Other republican candidates it is said, will also withdraw. This leaves only a democratic and socialist candidate in the field.

BEST MAN GETS WILD

DAYTON, Sept. 25.—John Zwick, 21, didn't get to act as best man at the wedding of a friend today. He vented his wrath by hitting the pastor, Rev. M. C. Cables, on the nose. Women of the congregation then mobbed Zwick. After he had been rescued by police squad, he was arrested in police court on a charge of assault and battery. The wedding was a success in other respects.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

"When the man who had come out of Sergeant Yost's tent dressed like a native passed our tent we saw it was Yost," said Sir Sprigg, going on with the story of the machine gunner.

"Then I remembered that several times he had painted himself up like an African native to help out the soldiers in their vaudeville shows.

"Our men reached the enemy's camp in a few minutes and captured the few natives who were even too frightened to run or who had been wounded and were unable to travel. Then we looked for Yost. We found him, lying beside his machine gun. He had wiped most of the paint from his face with his hands, but cause it was hot work operating the machine gun, so we could tell it was he, easily enough. But he was dead. One of the natives, while running, had thrown away his poisoned spear and it had struck Yost in the chest as he worked at the gun.

"He had killed scores with the machine gun, though. We counted over three hundred natives lying about the ground. He had set up his machine gun behind a big bush and had waited calmly until the natives—probably three thousand of them—had gathered together in front of him ready to rush at us. Then he had started his work.

"Before we left Sartoo our force was doubled and we had a chance to even the score with the natives. And I guess most of the fellows were thinking about Yost when they waded into the black men and killed almost the entire army of them."

FAUROT—NEIL O'BRIEN MINSTRELS

The all-new Neil O'Brien Minstrels will be the attraction at the Faurot next Saturday. It is promised by Oscar F. Hodge, who has been manager of the company since its inception eight years ago, that this season the performance will be superior in quality to any heretofore given. There will be more people concerned and the stage settings are more pretentious than ever before. A special matinee is announced. Neil O'Brien himself has written and produced three new feature acts which will be seen in the second part of performance. A song and dance of a unique character called "A Song and Dance of Songs and Dances." "The Potato Peeler" is the title of what is said to be an exceedingly humorous sketch dealing with an exaggerating darkey just out of the service and a finale that is said to be the funniest act Mr. O'Brien has ever written called "The League of Nations" and which will be participated in by the entire company. Among those to assist in the tumbling are Bert Swor, Davis "Sugarfoot" Gaffney, Ollie Debow, Bobby Gossans, Chas. Strong, Fred Miller, H. F. Qutan, Louis Tracer and Major Nowak. The singing will be well taken care of as the following artists have been engaged, J. Lester Haberborn, Chas. Kent, Paul Corvin, James E. Albark, Lea Laird, Richard Florney, Chas. R. Wright, Barton Isbell, Joseph Cronin, George Miller, Waldo Roberts and Edward O. House.

FAUROT—THE HOMEBREAKER

If there were many duplicates of Dorothy Dalton among traveling saleswomen, it is to be feared that the ranks of that industrial army would soon be sadly depleted by organized raids of enterprising youths search of matrimonial partners. Her impersonation of Mary Maybury establishes this belief, which will probably find numerous converts when the film is publicly presented.

Miss Dalton's, cheery smile and winsome ways render the leading role extremely fascinating; there is an irresistible spark and sparkle in her work that never weakens and puts her in complete sympathy with an audience from the first moment of her appearance on the scene to the final fadeout showing Mary and her regained lover sailing away on board their trim little craft in perfect accord. The comedy embraces a number of farcical situations, all of which are rushed through with merry energy and laughable effect. To see Dorothy steering the stiff and aged Jonas through the intricate whirl of the fox trot is alone worth the price of admission, a telling contrast being obtained by the introduction of a couple of agile professional dancers just before she pairs off with the old gentleman in his gallant attempt to "trip the light fantastic toe."

In this connection it may be said that Edwin Stevens, by his clever portrayal of Jonas Abbott, easily shares the honors of the production with the star. He is the leading male figure throughout, enters into the spirit of the character with immense vigor and a thorough understanding of its humorous appeal, and sports a bewhiskered makeup on his lengthy features which registers a comically artistic effect. Douglas MacLean is a good-looking hero of whom little is required save expressing the varied emotions of surprise and indignation at sight of the frivolous cavorting of his father and scheming Mary, with the final realization that he has been made a fool of for his own salvation.

The photography includes some pretty moonlit garden scenes, alluring river views, with effective long shots, and a number of fine close-ups. The lighting is perfect and the picture as a whole offers light and amusing entertainment.

The usual list of entertaining additional novelties are a part of the program.

ORPHEUM

It is a laughing show and you'll say so when you see the new bill at the Orpheum this last half. The Telephone Tangle with six clever performers is a big comedy novelty. Other features on this bill are Will H. Fields and La Adella, well known funsters, singers and dancers. Dave Roth in versatility introducing musical instruments. Marr and Evans, comedy acrobats and Martindale and Young, singers and dancers.

Sessue Hayakawa, the eminent Japanese actor, plays the part of a Hindu in his most recent picture, "The Man Beneath."

Hayakawa, who toured India with his Japanese dramatic company before he entered the silent drama, is a deep student of Orient mysticism, and tells many interesting stories of his experiences with the "fakers" of India.

"All along the Ganges, the sacred river of India, these Indian ascetics can be seen squatting on their haunches, lost in abstraction and oblivious of their surroundings. One old fellow that I saw was so emaciated and Sphinx-like, sitting there with his head against a wall and a glassy look in his eyes that I thought he had passed away, and so reported to the authorities.

"I learned to my astonishment that he would sit thus for days at a time, partaking of no sustenance whatever. While in this condition, I was told, his soul was in communion with Buddha."

"The Man Beneath" was produced by Haworth Pictures Corporation for Robertson, Cole and is distributed by Exhibitors Mutual. To be shown Sunday at the Orpheum. All the vaudeville acts will also appear.

HAD HEARD TOO MUCH OF IT.

The word accommodating would not begin to express the disposition of a prisoner arraigned recently in the county criminal courts. He was charged with stealing hams from the warehouse.

In accordance with the requirements of law the trial judge inquired of the prisoner whether he would like to have the indictment read or whether he would waive that formality.

"Suit yourself, judge. If it will help you any read it; personally I know all about it," answered the prisoner.

FOR MEN WHO WORK HARD.

Men who work at hard physical labor are subject to kidney trouble. J. G. Wolf, 724 S. They also relieve bladder and urinary ailments. H. F. Vorkamp. tu-thurs-sat

Steamer Sinking In Quicksands

KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 25.—The wreck of the large steamer near here, which divers a few days ago identified as the Spanish passenger liner Valbanera, believed to have been sunk in the recent gulf hurricane with 488 persons aboard, is gradually sinking into the quicksands on the shoals on which it was driven, it was reported today. It was said the hull of the steamer might soon disappear and thereby perhaps remove the last possibility of clearing up another mystery of the sea.

"HIS MAJESTY, THE AMERICAN"

THE story of "His Majesty, The American" is a "knock-out." It gives "Doug" a chance to do a lot of entirely new and almost impossible feats, and to hand you a laugh or a thrill almost every minute. Never has he ever before taken such heroic measures to circumvent the villain, or has he assumed such risks in the performance of feats of rescue. He takes a hand in everything, and his exploits lead him all over the world. Never has he attempted a production of this magnitude before.

FIVE ARRESTED ARE WANTED ELSEWHERE

VAN WERT, Sept. 25.—An officer of the Indianapolis police department is expected in town today, to claim C. G. King, A. B. Kiarns and James R. Monroe, arrested here while traveling in an automobile, which has been identified as a car stolen in Indianapolis. The car was originally identified by the number on the motor and the State license number and later a further identification mark was found in the number on the frame of the car.

William Rugenstein, a detective of the Indianapolis police department, arrived here Wednesday, to claim the three men held for the theft of an automobile. The car has been fully identified as the property of James L. Conwell, of Westport, near Indianapolis, and was stolen on the fourth day of this month. The same car was previously stolen earlier in the year.

An officer from Lewisburg will claim E. Bunting, of Hooperston, Illinois, who was taken into custody by Sheriff Sells, after he had attempted to cash a check at the bank in Middle Point. The investigation disclosed that Bunting is wanted at Lewisburg and several other towns for passing bogus checks.

DRUG ADDICT TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

WAPAKONETA, Sept. 26.—Grazed at the thought of having his drug allowance cut out, was the inmate furnished William Grace, 35, an inmate of the county jail, to attempt to end his life in his cell.

Grace is a drug addict, and having been told that the doctor who had been giving him his daily allowance would be out-of-town until Saturday, he became violent, and Tuesday night he secured one end of his leather belt about his neck and the other about a bar far above his head by standing on an iron bed. He then jumped off.

He was discovered by Gussie Lear, son-in-law of Sheriff Hinton who happened to be at the jail at the time. Grace was promptly removed from his suspended position and resuscitative measures adopted. By the time a doctor arrived he had been fully revived.

The culmination to a short lived career of juvenile crime came to Robert Leaming, aged 12, of St. Marys, Monday afternoon, when he was sentenced to the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Leaming, residing at 323 Oliver street, St. Marys.

On August 14, the lad was arrested for attempting to steal a horse and buggy, belonging to William Nedderman, of New Bremen, who was attending a picnic given at Kuenning's grove. The judge continued the case sixty days, and the lad placed on probation. His parents were to have appeared with him in court on the 20th of next month, but on Sunday, September 14, he was again arrested after he had stolen a horse and buggy belonging to Otis Framan of Glynwood, from a hitching rack at St. Marys, the night before.

Consulate in London Besieged With Array of Nationals, Many Refused

ALL ON SAME FOOTING

Those Having Anything to Sell or Desire to Purchase Favored

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The United States consulate here has been a veritable Tower of Babel this month. Cosmopolitan London has been pouring a varied array of nationals into the American gateway in England with the single hope that they be allowed to go to the United States. It's a case of many knocking and few entering, however.

Must Have Good Reason
No one is allowed to go unless he or she has a good reason for being in the United States. The wealthy Britisher who wishes to escape after war conditions here and see a country he has heard so much about recently is in the same category as the Italian or French waiter who wants to seek a job "out there." But if any one has anything to sell—those cases are in the great minority, however, as few people in England have anything now that is needed in the United States—or if they wish to go to purchase, they are given every facility.

Every morning an hour or so before the consulate opens a line of aliens form. Often there are from 75 to 100 in the queue and more coming. An average of nine out of ten will be disappointed.

Lacked Diplomacy
A British woman evidently of means and just as evidently lacking diplomacy made no attempt to conceal her irritation at standing in line an hour and a half. Her reason she said for wanting to go to the United States was to visit some relatives.

"Is your presence in the United States necessary because of the financial condition of your relatives?" the examiner asked her.
"Certainly not," rather haughtily.
"Then I cannot grant you a visa."

Case Was Held Up
The young examiner was then deluged with threats but it was of no avail.
The next applicant was an American officer who also wished to get a visa for a girl with whom he said he intended to marry when they reached the United States. Her type raised in the mind of the examiner the question whether she would be gladly received by the mother of the young man. Her case was held up for consideration. The young officer doubtless is none as he expected to sail within a few days and the fiancée has not presented herself again.

WELCOME AWAITS ROYAL PARTY IN WASHINGTON

National Capital Feverishly Awaits Visit of Belgium's King and Queen

WHITE HOUSE GUESTS

Plans in Hands of Third Assistant Secretary of State Long

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The national capital is agog over the coming visit of Belgian royalty.

King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and the crown prince of Belgium are expected to arrive in Washington about the first of next month. Just after President and Mrs. Wilson have returned from their trip to the Pacific coast, it was learned at the White House today. The Belgian royal party will be met by a representative of the president upon arriving in this country, and, according to the present plans, will go directly to the national capital. The king and queen and crown prince will be guests at the White House, and it is expected that they will occupy a suite on the second floor directly above the East room.

White House Guests
From the time the royal visitors arrive until they sail for Europe on their homeward trip they will be guests of the government. They will come to America on the transport George Washington, which was used by the president when he went to Europe. The entire party, including the king, queen and crown prince, will number 21. Ten of the party will be Belgian officers and eight will be personal servants of the royal party. Just where the officers and servants will be quartered while in Washington has not as yet been determined.

Arrangements for the entertainment of the Belgians are in the hands of Third Assistant Secretary of State Breckinridge Long. He consulted President and Mrs. Wilson before they went west. The plans for the entertainment of the royal visitors, as they now stand, do not provide for any large reception at the White House in honor of the king and queen. Secretary Long explained today that this would not be possible for a number of reasons. One of them being that the White House is not large enough to accommodate those who would necessarily have to be invited. There will be, however, a state dinner in their honor, the number of guests at this

Blow to Society

The announcement that the visit of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth will be entirely official has been a considerable blow to Washington society. The king and queen of Belgium will be the first royal heads of a nation to visit the United States and social Washington was preparing to honor them in an elaborate way. All this preparation, however, has gone by the board.

The social nabobs were counting on the extreme pleasure of at least meeting the king and queen at a White House reception, but even this will not take place. The ordinary White House reception list contains about 3000 names. But if President and Mrs. Wilson should plan a reception for King Albert and Queen Elizabeth it is explained by the White House officials that the list of invitations could not possibly be kept under 10,000 names. The executive mansion could not accommodate such a crowd.

EVERYTHING WENT AGAINST HIM SAYS THIS LOCAL MAN

Became Run Down, Nervous, Weak, Vitality Was Low, Kidneys Out of Order, Liver Sluggish, and Often Had Dizzy Spells

Claims Great Relief From Drecto, the Medicine Now Talked About So Much

Many troubles the human family suffers from, may be traced to a sluggish or inactive liver—when the flow of bile is poor, or insufficient the stomach often fails in its duty to digest the food properly; constipation, in many cases, may be traced to a poor supply of bile. Headaches, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, dizziness, a coated tongue, spots dancing before the eyes, are also symptoms of a sluggish liver. Read what this well known local man says Drecto did for him. He is Mr. J. M. McGuire, a well known carpenter, living at 785 So. Metcalf Street, Lima, O., who says: "I credit the big improvement in my feelings to the way Drecto overcame my constipation, roused my liver, got my kidneys working regularly, and by aiding my stomach to digest the food."

"Before taking Drecto, it seemed like everything I ate went against me; caused pains in my stomach and bowels, gastritis and headaches. I had lost my energy, couldn't sleep on account of my nerves being on edge all the time, had dull pains in my back and was daily constipated. All these troubles have passed away under Drecto treatment, and I'm glad to give praise to this wonderful medicine."

Drecto is composed of the juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels and purify the blood. It relieves constipation, prevents gas forming in the stomach, increases the appetite, insures sound, refreshing sleep, banishes catarrh of the head and takes the pain out of rheumatic joints.

Drecto is now sold by all good druggists and is highly recommended in Lima by Baldwin's Central Drug Store.

LOCALS WILL PLAY TWO GAMES HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Dayton Americans and Clark's Paulding Outfit Will Endeavor to Trample Lima—Bob Davis Will Work For "Our Boys"

(BY JAMES T. BURBA)

On top of the good sport news around Lima comes the information that on next Sunday the local gang of ball tossers will stack up against two of the best teams that have ever performed in this city, and for a little more than a single admission the fans will have an opportunity of witnessing two games.

Everything is coming at once. With the Reds having the old bunting packed away in the trunk, a good fight card scheduled for the next show of the Lima Athletic Club, the Latonia races opening yesterday and the Grand Circuit in session at Columbus, what more can we ask? True, maybe all this is not happening right here in Lima, but if we are interested to a great extent, we can scrape together enough of the legal tender to visit these nearby cities and get our fill of our particular sport.

However, we are getting away from the subject. What we want to talk today is baseball. In fact that pretty nearly what everyone is talking about these days. The nice thing about our talk is, if you don't realize it, all you have to do is to lay the paper aside, but you can't do that when you are holding conversation with someone. By golly, we're away from that subject again.

Well, anyway, have friend wife, cook that dinner early next Sabbath for the first game of the day will be called at 1:30 o'clock. The Dayton Americans will be the contenders against "Our Boys" in the opening game, and Harry Clark's Paulding outfit will play the second game. It is very essential for the locals to win the Americans as this is the only team who threatened an injunction against them. It was not the threat of the injunction which was the incentive for bringing them here, but Manager Holman simply wants to show them that as a ball team they will make a good gang of about players.

They are coming here loaded to the guards with real ball players. It is understood as they have a vain dread of being whipped by the Limas. We will be forced to say, without a doubt, the hardest battle the outfit that has ever played here. The fight from the first tap of the long, until the fans begin to tear up the rain checks.

The other team, Paulding, needs no introduction to local fans, as it is the first gang who has made the Lima kids work overtime to beat 'em this season. According to information received from Clark he has secured the promises of some old teammates of his, in the American Association, to join the outfit for the game next Sunday. It happens we will get place on the local aggregation.

Then, when the coming Sunday has passed into history, the following three Sundays will be feature events insofar as baseball is concerned in Lima for the locals will battle with the Dayton Triangles to decide the state championship. The Triangles are conceded to be the best gang of semi-pros in the state, and the team that defeats this bunch two games out of three will be hailed as the champs. That is what "Our Boys" will endeavor to do.

The Triangles have played and defeated the best teams, not only in the state, but in this section of the country. If the locals are able to win this series they will end the season amid much pomp and glory.

Bob Davis, Celina pitcher, who worked so effectively against the locals two seasons ago, has been secured by Manager Holman, and will work one game Sunday. It is very probable he will pitch two of the games against the Triangles. Davis has wonderful ability, and, several times within the past two years, has turned down offers from the majors.

Flowers is Back in Game

COLUMBUS, Sept. 25.—Football stock at Ohio State took quite a rise early this morning when Jim Flowers, star tackle of former state elevens, made his appearance. Flowers adds much to the wealthy stock of football material which Coach Jack White has at his command. As the Ohio team lines up for the scrimmage Holtcamp can be seen getting first choice at center, Pixley and Johnson at guards, Speers and Huffman at the tackles and Myers and McDonald on the flanks. Strachan in the pivot position is supported by numerous backs, Matheny getting first call for full back, while the husky Willman is nursing a sprained ankle back into shape. Davies, Bliss, Faracini, Miller, Harley, Sweitzer and numerous other halves give promise of again making Ohio famous.

Can You Blame 'Em?

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The proposed post-season baseball series between the New York National and American League Clubs has been declared off. It was learned today, President Stoneham of the Giants expressed the opinion there was little public demand for the games.

Poor Old Eddie Collins Explaining to His Boss Why He Made Only Five Hits When He Had Been to Bat Six Times

Eddie Collins and "Kid" Gleason

Poor old Eddie Collins! It's a shame the White Sox have to depend upon this aged cripple to cover second base for them during the world's series. During a recent double-header Chicago played with the Yankees this is all poor Eddie did: In second game made five hits out of six times at bat; beat out two neat bunts by yards; stole three bases, including third and home; scored three runs; figured in double plays; not possession of the home plate while the pitcher was winding up, and robbed the Yankee batters of three hits by seemingly impossible steps. This photograph shows him confiding with Manager Kid Gleason at the end of that disastrous afternoon.

At last, they can now put the Sox in the stable and start grooming 'em for the World's Series.

To make it all the easier for the Windy City gang, the Indians dropped their contest with the Tigers yesterday.

With it all settled there's nothing to do but to sit and wait until September 30.

From the amount of robberies occurring in Lima, it is our guess that some of the crooks are planning to buy a seat for the series.

M'GREGOR EASILY WINS FEATURE

Beats Mariondale In 2:12 Buckeye Event—Sanaido Wins From Grace Direct In 2:05 Pace

COLUMBUS, Sept. 25.—In a program of Grand Circuit events full of good stakes and in several of them good straight fights on a good track and with a big crowd looking on, most of the favorites cashed for their backers and no long shots to speak of, went over in the betting.

McGregor the Great won another good trotting stake in the 2:12 Buckeye event from his rival, Mariondale. He never was in trouble and today won as he pleased.

In the Board of Trades 2:05 pace there was much division of opinion about the ability of Sanaido again to defeat Grace Direct as he did last week and they about even favorites. Sanaido won his straight heats, however, in three hard miles. The best time was 2:02 1/2, made in the first heat. This was the fastest mile of the meeting so far.

Murphy also won the Chamber of Commerce 2:08 trot with Don De Lopez which he drove for the Geers stable. Hollywood Kite was a big favorite, but she broke in three of the four heats. In the mile she stayed on the trot her victory was easy.

The three year old trot, the Western Horseman Futurity had but four starters. Periscope won this event after dropping the first heat to Brunsloff, due to a break Don J. also took the unfinished 2:17 pace left over from yesterday.

SOX AT LAST MAY NAIL PENNANT TO FLAG POLE

Pale Hose Clinch Rag When They Defeat St. Louis Browns in an Uphill Battle By the Score of Six to Two.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Beyond the power of the ultimate mathematical or mundane mishap to thwart them, the Chicago White Sox made themselves immutably and eternally champions of the American League for 1919 by trimming the Browns yesterday, 6 to 3, in one of the gamest uphill battles they have ever staged.

With the aid of their pitching staff, Eddie Cicotte, knocked off the mound before the tireless attack of the enemy, and with Captain Collins banished from the scrap by a peevish umpire, for kicking over a hair-line decision at the plate and with the score board indicating that they did not have to beat the Browns in order to clinch the pennant, the Gleasons kept on battling until the means of a resistless rally in the last half of the ninth won their own pennant with lots of margin to spare.

Dick Kerr, who replaced the damaged White Sox ace on the slab, led the victorious assault in the final round with a single. Leibold sent a single to center which squirted off Jacobson's shins. McMullin, who took the place of the banished captain, came up where a hit would convert a 5 to 4 score against us into a victory, but the foxy Sothoron walked him filling the bases. Kerr singled and tied the score.

HAS LIMA FULL GROWN CRIME WAVE

POLICE BELIEVE THEY WILL HANDLE THE SITUATION

Force is Very Light, However, For the Size of the City

NEED MORE ON FORCE

Lima Has Less Policemen Than Any City of Same

Police are wondering whether or not a wave of crime has hit Lima. Indications point to that, but it is no more than is to be expected, they say. They cite practically every city, large or small, in the country is having its share of crime, so why would Lima be different?

However, statistics show, that compared with other similar sized cities, Lima is not nearly so overrun with crooks. True, in the past month there have been many attempted robberies, but with the exception of the Regent Theatre and the Sample Shop, which occurred last night the others have been practically unsuccessful.

Have An Alibi

In Lima, as in many other cities, there are many men out of work as the result of strikes. Crooks labor under the impression that those circumstances afford a good place to "work" as in the majority of cases the blame for the robbery is laid upon the strikers.

Police Chief Roush, when asked whether or not he is making preparations to keep the crime wave from growing any worse, stated he is endeavoring to combat it to the best of his ability, but when it is taken into consideration that for a city the size of Lima there are only 29 policemen on the department, it is a pretty hard matter to stop all manner of crime.

Only Few Cops

According to the chief, there are 11 policemen on the day shift. Included in this are the plainclothesmen and the desk sergeant. On the night shift there are 18 men. Besides the plainclothesmen there are desk sergeants and a captain. In the night shift there are only six patrolmen in the business district.

On top of this comes the information from a well founded source, that in the history of cities in this country, there has never been a really efficient department that has not one patrolman to every one thousand population. A city might be protected to a certain extent, and perhaps it is a free from crime as for ordinary city but when a big case does present itself, the department is unable to successfully cope with it owing to the small number of men on the force.

It is understood, efforts will be made to persuade council to enlarge the police department to the necessary size in order to stop the present crime wave before it grows any larger.

DENTISTS HOLD DISTRICT MEET

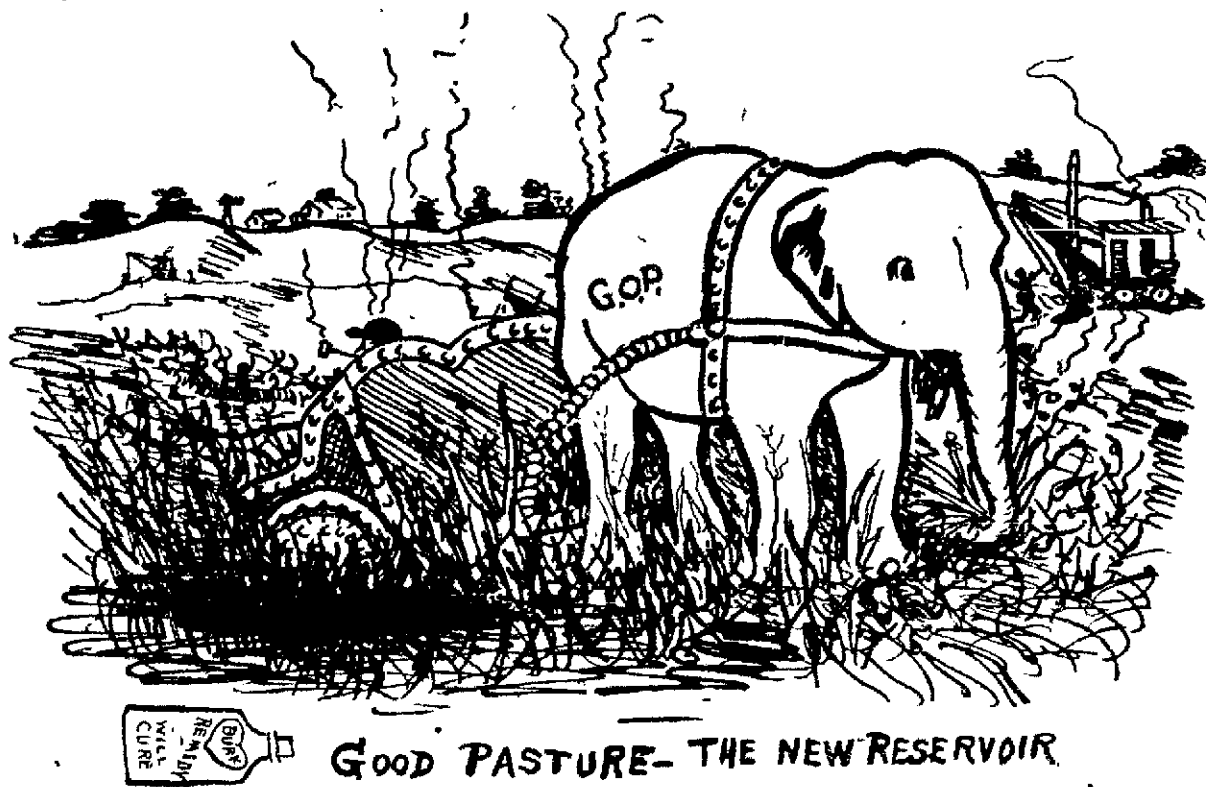

Two Hundred Knights of the Forcops "Talk Shop" Thursday

Two hundred dentists from Allen and surrounding counties, attended the joint meeting of the Western and North-Western Dental Societies, held all day Thursday at the Elks club. The session opened at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Lunch was served at noon in the main dining room. The afternoon session commenced at 1 o'clock.

The program committee has succeeded in obtaining the best talent in the dentistry profession to address the meeting. Among the speakers was Dr. Boyd G. Gardner of the famous Mayo hospital, Rochester, chief of the dental research clinic of that institution. Dr. Mayor B. S. Rothwell of Cleveland, who served with the British Army; Dr. Edward Quivey, of Ft. Wayne and Dr. Eugene Hildebrand, of Gothenberg, Sweden. Dr. A. J. Musgrave, of Ohio City, Dr. Schedine and Dr. H. L. Brunk, the latter two of whom were with the A. E. F. many months overseas, were also on the program for short addresses.

The ripe tomatoes sold for five cents a pound or 75 cents a bushel, cooking apples 10 cents a pound; cabbage four cents a pound, roasting ears 15 cents a dozen, melons, two for 25c, sweet peppers and mangoes 10 and 15 cents a dozen. The market will be held as usual Saturday morning from 7 until 10 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS AN OPEN HOUSE

Four Hundred Industrial Workers Visit the New Building

The first of a series of open house nights for the employees of the industrial plants of the city, was held Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. The affair was successful beyond expectations, and about 400 men from the various plants in the city attended. Music was furnished by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. A gym program was given by Physical Director Pyle. Later in the evening a combined musical and vaudeville program was given by the men of the Garford plant and B. and O. shops, with Industrial Secretary Biddle in charge.

Downing of the Garford rendered a solo on his saxophone, and H. Hammond, of the Garford gave some fancy clog dancing. Others on the program were: C. Gavin, P. O. Sells, A. S. Kooch and George Williams. A tug of war between the Garford and B. and O. resulted in the Garford coming out victors. The evening closed with all going to the swimming pool, where numerous exhibitions of swimming and diving were put on.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
Harrison Benjamin Schoal, 61, laborer and Elizabeth E. Heaton, 34, both of 836 East High street.

Ralph Charles Adams, 22, railroad, St. Marys and Leatha Lukille Miley, 21, 283 South Jackson street.

Edward Lewis Doner, 51, cabinet maker, 130 East North street, and Laura M. Jackman, 52, 121 North Pine street.

Complains Curb Market "Shorts"

Authorities having in charge the curb market, held three times a week would do well to inquire into the conduct of the produce vendors who make sales.

One Lima woman complained to the Times that she bought pickles at what she thought was a good bargain. She bought 200 and when she got them home and counted them there were just 180.

Curb market dealers should be made to give what they are paid for, and if there are any complaints on shortages or light weights, buyers should let them be known.

INFANT SON DIES

BOTH LEGS SEVERED WHEN MAN FALLS UNDER LOCOMOTIVE

Charles Clark is Victim of An Accident While at Work

While attempting to climb from his engine in the yards of the Lima Locomotive Works about 9:30 o'clock this morning, Charles Clark, 36 years of age, unmarried, in some manner lost his balance, and fell under the wheels of the locomotive, which severed both of his legs above the knees. The unfortunate man was discovered lying under the engine by A. B. Roundtree, foundry foreman and Frank Whiticker.

He was cared for in the emergency hospital until Williams and Davis ambulance arrived and removed him to St. Rita's hospital, where he was reported to be in a very serious condition. It is not known whether he will recover, as he is still under the effects of the anesthetic. The young man had been a yard man at the loco for the past three years, coming here from Bellefontaine, where a sister resides.

"Who's in there?" he called. A flash of white teeth showed in the darkness and a soft voice answered "This am de American army."

UNCLE SAM AFTER LIMA MEN FINED FOR BOOTLEGGING

Miller and Schlatter May Be Called Upon For $1,490 More

CHIEF ROUSH TALKS

Declares Police Have Hard Time Detecting Illicit Liquor Sales

Antone Miller and Edward Schlatter, former saloon keepers who were fined $500 each in police court a few days ago on a charge of bootlegging will have to pay $1,490 revenue tax, and are subject to a fine of $1,000, according to Chief Roush who was in conference with an internal revenue collector, whose name is withheld.

The federal agent arrived in Lima last night and this morning entered into a conference with Chief Roush and Police Judge Botkin. Immediately upon leaving the chief's office, the agent, it is understood, served notice upon the two former saloon keepers.

This afternoon Chief Roush, while talking of the cases, said:

"I have heard several reports about town relative to the police department protecting bootleggers. This is a lie. The police department, since I have been at its head, has not and never will protect wrongdoers. They all look alike to us. I don't care who the man is, if he deserves to be arrested we will arrest him."

"We are on the lookout for bootleggers, but it is really a hard matter for a policeman or a detective to arrest one. I have also heard reports of how easy one may buy liquor over the bar. Yet, none of these purchasers ever name a place or seek to aid the department."

"Again let me remark, we are not protecting any wrongdoers and we shall arrest those illegally selling liquor as rapidly as we can get evidence on them."

Once the turtle beat the hare

ONCE the fire insurance on your property ran close to its value. Now the value has far outstripped the insurance and a fire would mean a greater loss to you than ever before. The increased value is a fine thing but the increased risk is dangerous.

For your own protection you should do two things—now. First, increase your insurance and second, reduce the chance of fire. The Hartford Fire Insurance Company offers you this double protection at the mere cost of the insurance premiums.

Let us explain this new service which gives you every means of preventing a fire and adequate, reliable insurance in case a fire does occur, despite your precautions.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

The young man or woman looking for a position today is not asked what college they came from or who their ancestors were.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

That is the question. Special training is useful and essential. Most of the men at the head of great establishments have been promoted step by step from the bottom. They were able to rise because they realized the necessity for sound business training. Luck or chance had little to do with their success.

There is a lesson in this for every ambitious young man and woman.

Call at our office and talk this over.
